A WORD FROM US

For six years, we've worked hard to bring Orlando the best in video game music, nerdcore, and chiptune and have grown each year, thanks to your support. We've had great success with our past fall video game shows focused on Mega Man and Legend of Zelda. Now, we take a journey into the world of Final Fantasy.

This will be our biggest event to date and a massive undertaking. We hope you enjoy every aspect of the event. We hope you make friends and become fans of all our acts and artists. Most of all, we hope you have fun.

My introduction into the Final Fantasy franchise was the U.S. release of Final Fantasy VI for the Super Nintendo. It still holds a special place in my heart. Final Fantasy VI is still my all-time favorite, but thanks to our weekly Twitch streams, I've gotten to play more Final Fantasy and appreciate the franchise even more.

Tonight, we celebrate the hard work of SquareSoft (or Square Enix), as well as the likes of Hironobu Sakaguchi, Tetsuya Nomura, Yoshitaka Amano, Nobuo Uematsu, Yoko Shimomura, Hitoshi Sakamoto, and countless others. Enjoy.
